Dinners, Luncheons, Teas.

Miss Emily Kemp will entertain with an afternoon tea from 2 to 4 o'clock Thursday, June 3, at her home on Macdonald avenue, complimentary to Miss Lemire Nebeker, whose marriage to Doctor Mayel will be a June event.

Miss Vivian Pomeroy entertained informally at luncheon today for four of her classmates in the graduating class of the High school. The guests were Misses Genevieve Bassell, Margaret Bush, Betty Mary Smith and Pearl Ponderford. The afternoon was spent pleasantly with various games.

Mrs. M. D. Rowe entertained with a Spanish supper Thursday night at her home on Noble street. American Beauty roses decorated the room. The dining room was decorated with red carnations and maiden hair ferns. The dining table was centered with a bouquet of carnations and ferns. Supper was served in four courses. There were 12 guests.

After the dinner, the guests spent the remainder of the evening in dancing.

The engagement of Miss Halle Matthews to Herman Bateman was announced at a prettily appointed luncheon, given Thursday by Mrs. S. W. Faint, at her home on Boulevard. The engagement was announced in a most novel way, the cat was literally let out of the bag, for little white satin slips were fastened to tiny white satin slips beside each guest's plate and within the bags were small gray china cards, upon which were the names of the betrothed couple and the date of their wedding, June 12. Before the bride to be, Miss Matthews, and the groom, Mr. Bateman, were seated, the bride's slipper was placed upon a small figure of a bridegroom and the groom's mother's favor was a tiny figure of a bride. Miss Matthews is the daughter of Mrs. E. Matthews. They are from Austin, Texas, but have been making their home in El Paso for some time. Mr. Bateman is the son of Mrs. M. Bateman, of El Paso. He is connected with the office of the engineer, where he is employed.

The center of the luncheon table was decorated with a large vase, filled with pink sweet peas and surrounding it were small vases filled with the same fragrant flowers. Pink candles in crystal sticks, tied with bows of pink tulle, were about the table and rooms. The place cards were ornamented with hand painted cupids and wedding slippers.

The guests were 12 of Miss Matthews' most intimate friends. The luncheon was served in seven courses.

Dances.
